

Storylines
Christchurch Family Day
Sunday 23rd August 2009

The Canterbury Reading Association supported Storylines and provided assistance at the craft table on Sunday.

It was a busy day making books, book marks, origami cats and dogs and butterfly cards. There was also a colouring in competition and a writing competition.

Authors and Illustrators shared their talents with the families that attended the event.

Marc McBride begins his dragon illustration.

Almost completed! What sort of dragon is it? It is all in the eyes.
Find out more about Marc McBride, illustrator of Deltora Quest at <http://www.scholastic.com.au/titles/deltoraquest/illustrator.asp>

Robyn Belton
illustrator of Greedy Cat.

The family who won the Robyn Belton bear.

Find out more about Robyn Belton on this web site

http://www.storylines.org.nz/author\_details.asp?author\_id=110

The Town Hall Limes room was filled with Authors and Illustrators. Liz Weir, Helen Taylor, Katz Cowley, David Elliot, Craig Smith, Fleur Beale, Margaret Mahy were all there to share their talents with the families of Christchurch.

If you didn't make it this year look out for it this time next year. It is a great place to go and learn the secrets behind books and how they came about.